

Idaho Rocky Mountain Ranch

New this Summer

Summer Showcase Series

We're excited to introduce this program to you featuring speakers, entertainers, and activities in a variety of topic areas. June events, detailed below, offer photography, fishing, and Idaho Wineries. July and August feature literature, food and wine, and music.

Unlimited Outdoor Adventure

Freedom to Choose

Time to Relax

Fine Amenities & Cuisine

June Showcase Events

June events offer a presentation before dinner with a practical session after the next morning's breakfast. Please join us for the night to enjoy both activities or for dinner and the evening presentation. Reservations are required.

Photography In Nature

Before our IRMR barbecue dinner on Thursday, June 18, Craig Wolfrom, Wood River Valley Photographer, will give a presentation on nature photography. This will be followed Friday morning, June 19 with an after-breakfast hike on the Ranch, with you, Craig, and your camera.

Fishing in Idaho

Fishing in Central Idaho, with Julie Meissner, proprietor of Sawtooth Fishing Guides. Before our fine dining dinner service Friday evening June 26, Julie will present "Fishing in Central Idaho", to acquaint you with the Sawtooth Valley's fish, and fishing opportunities. This will be followed by casting clinics at the Ranch Saturday morning, June 27, after breakfast.

Idaho Winemakers

Winemaking in Idaho, with Urban Winemakers Coop members Melanie Krause and Joe Schnerr, Cinder Wines, Mike Crowley, Syringa Winery, and John Danielson, Vale Wine Co. Before dinner Saturday evening, June 27, these Idaho winemakers will discuss the state's burgeoning wine industry, and provide tasting samples of their wine.

In the News

Backpacker Magazine's February 2009 edition lists Iron Creek to Sawtooth Lake as their #3 hike in the Northwest Region. For those of you who have done this hike, I'm sure you know why. For those of you who haven't, come out to experience it.
