

Greetings and News from the Idaho Rocky Mountain Ranch

April 2012

IRMR Welcomes Chef Jordan Boutry

Another great summer season begins June 15 and there will be old faces and new to greet you. Bill, Sandra, Erica, Jeff and Devan are at the ready, and Jordan Boutry has joined the team at the top as Head Chef. Jordan earned his culinary degree from the Art Institute of Colorado in 2003, after which he served as Banquet Chef at the Cherry Hills Country Club before moving to Montana. Guests of The Gallatin Gateway Inn, The Ranch at Rock Creek and Mint Bar and Cafe have been delighted by Jordan's cuisine. Born in Gig Harbor, WA, Jordan is a western outdoor enthusiast and looks forward, when he's not in the Ranch kitchen, to exploring our magnificent Sawtooth Mountains with his wife, Stephanie.

Stephanie also is joining the IRMR team as the Head Housekeeper. Please make sure to meet and greet them during your summer visit.

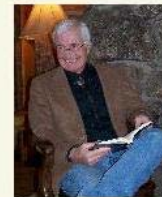

Sunset Magazine

We want to provide fair warning to those of you waiting to make your summer reservation. Sunset Magazine's special summer travel edition once again will highlight the Ranch. We expect the reservation volume to increase, based on the Ranch's last Sunset appearance, so please call so we can be sure your cabin is held for you.
