

In This Issue

Triathlon News
Dinner Program
Showcase Events

IRMR is a sponsor of the Redfish Triathlon Saturday, June 20

For those participants staying with us before the race, Andrew has created a carb-loaded Racers' Choice entrée for you for your Friday dinner. And, we'll arrange an early breakfast to get you to the Race on time. We hope you'll stay a few days to luxuriate with us after the race for a just reward!

What's For Dinner, Cookie?

Many old favorites and some new, exciting dishes will be on the menu this season at the Idaho Rocky Mountain Ranch. Smoke-roasted Duck Breast, Cashew and Red Thai Curry Crusted Diver Scallops, and Pan Seared Lava Lake Lamb Loin with Herbed Honey Glaze are some of the specialties staying in the line up, with some surprises to keep you guessing. New players will include Idaho Elk Medallions with Tomatillo Bearnaise, and Grilled Idaho Sturgeon with a Sweet Corn Tarragon Sauce.

Saturdays will feature our version of Surf and Turf with Lobster Tails and Buffalo grilled over apple wood. Of course, we use as much local Idaho product as possible and this year we're reaching into every corner of the state. (Sorry, no Idaho Lobster)

Despite our full a la carte breakfast and continental buffet that will satisfy even the heartiest eaters, you won't want to head for the trails without packin' a lunch. Gourmet sandwiches, power cookies, trail mix, fruit and drinks will be available during breakfast time in the dining room. Just grab and go!

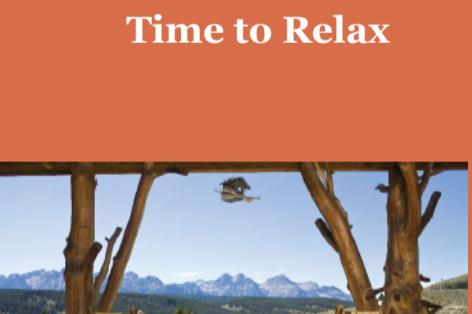

Hope you all bring your appetites and I can't wait to see you.
Happy Trails,
Andrew

In answer to a frequently asked question, "Yes". The Idaho Rocky Mountain Ranch does serve dinner, by reservation, to guests not staying with us (Monday's excepted).

Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday & Friday Casual Fine Dining in the Lodge dining room offers a multi-course meal featuring multiple entrée selections, prepared with the freshest ingredients, and produce from Idaho farms. Dinner seating is from 6:30 - 8:30pm.

Thursday and Saturday, IRMR Barbecue Nights, sit on the front porch, in the dining room, or at the Ranch picnic tables while you enjoy a delicious grilled buffet, listen to cowboy serenades and watch the sun set behind the Sawtooth Mountains. The buffets are open 6:30 - 8:oopm.

Before dinner, appetizers are served in the Lodge Great Room at 6pm.
Music during dinner on Sunday, Thursday and Saturday.
$50 per adult, $20 for children under 7.

Private Events

The intimacy of a private Ranch reservation creates a unique and ideal atmosphere for a family reunion, wedding, recreational adventure, private party, business retreat or relaxed enjoyment of friends. Please ask for details.

Unlimited Outdoor Adventure

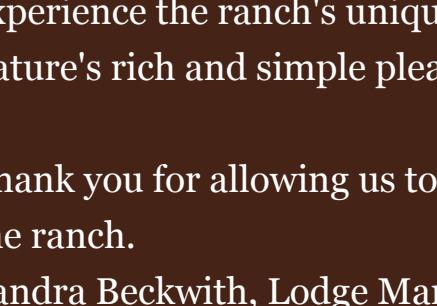

Freedom to Choose

Time to Relax

Fine Amenities & Cuisine

Renovation Report

New redwood decking, and remodeled changing rooms with radiant heat piped from the hot springs now grace the pool area.

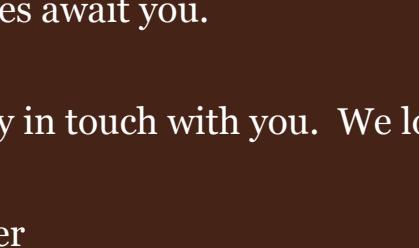

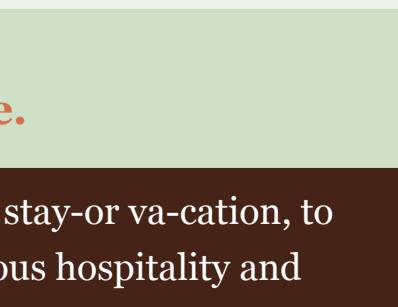

Evenings with John Rember

July 8, 17 & 29

August 12 & 22

Before dinner, local author John Rember will read from his collection of fascinating stories about growing up in the Sawtooth Valley, and will share other local color. Traplines: Coming Home to Sawtooth Valley was named Idaho Book of the Year in 2004 by the Idaho Library Association.

Musical Concert with Bruce Innes and Jilla Web July 18 and August 29

We are so fortunate to have Bruce, an internationally acclaimed singer, songwriter and performer as a frequent musical visitor to the Ranch. The concerts with Jilla are a unique treat, promising an evening of music of incomparable style and expressiveness.

Sips and Bites, with John Alonge and Chef Andrew Mechanic August 23 and 28

During the pre dinner appetizer hour, John Alonge, founder of the San Diego Wine and Culinary Institute, will pair wines from our IRMR wine list with Chef Andrew Mechanic's tasty hors d'oeuvre.

Enjoy the Ranch Program in June or September at our special rate.

We hope you will visit this summer for our special events, dinner, and a stay-or va-cation, to experience the ranch's unique program. Fine food and amenities, gracious hospitality and nature's rich and simple pleasures await you.

Thank you for allowing us to stay in touch with you. We look forward to seeing you here at the ranch.

Sandra Beckwith, Lodge Manager

Idaho Rocky Mountain Ranch